

2022-2023 Yachting New Zealand Affiliation and Member Card Information

Yachting New Zealand Affiliation

How does the affiliation system work?

The yacht club is the affiliated member of Yachting New Zealand. The method of calculating a club's cost of affiliation to Yachting New Zealand is based on a per-club-member levy system.

A club member is any individual who is a member of your club, whether they are a sailing member or not.

Affiliation Levy

Your club's affiliation levy will be calculated by multiplying the total number of individual club members by the affiliation fee.

- Individuals - $27.50 plus GST
- Family memberships
 - Two family members - $55.00 plus GST
 - Three or more family members - $68.20 plus GST
 - Please include the information for all individuals in a family when membership information is provided to Yachting New Zealand, as per the excel template supplied via email.
- Corporate members - $27.50 plus GST
- Schools - $27.50 plus GST
- Life members - exempt
- Patrons – exempt
- Volunteer exemption – up to 10 per club.

If your club has volunteers who are given a membership in recognition of their contribution to the club, your club can apply to Yachting New Zealand to have them exempted from the affiliation calculation. However, their information is still required before the exemption can be granted. Any exemptions are at the discretion of Yachting New Zealand and limited to 10 individuals per club.

What information is required by Yachting New Zealand in order to calculate the club's affiliation levy?

We ask for information for every individual club member, including volunteers, life members and club patrons as at March 31 each year.

The following information is required for each individual:

- Member (individual) name and surname
- Member subscription category
- Club subscription amount paid
- Date of birth
- Email address
- Gender
- Ethnicity

Why is all this information required?

The member information will enable Yachting New Zealand to have a better understanding of who is participating in yachting and boating at affiliated clubs. We use this information to understand how our membership is changing, what impact Yachting New Zealand is having on participation (membership) and to help us make good decisions around the programmes and services we offer.

The member's email address is used to email your members so they can access their Yachting New Zealand member card (see below for more information on the member card programme and privacy).

Please use the Microsoft Excel template provided to fill out your club's membership information (not PDF). This will allow us to sort the information more accurately and make the process more manageable for us all.

Contact details are not shared or made available to any third party.

What should we do when new members join or resign after March 31?

We'll capture them when the membership details are required the following year. Similarly, if anyone leaves then they won't be included in the membership details.

Is there any other information we need to supply?

Financial reports will be requested from clubs each year as part of our audit process for affiliation. We also request financial reports when we see significant changes in a club's membership numbers, either positive or negative. We ask for financials to get a snapshot of how the club is doing and if we can offer any additional assistance.

How do we go about applying for a payment plan?

Yachting New Zealand have provided financial assistance in the form of a payment plan for clubs in the past. Please submit a request in writing to Yachting New Zealand chief executive David Abercrombie should your club need assistance. Clubs will need to provide Yachting New Zealand with their financials (final or draft) and complete member information.

Is Yachting New Zealand able to provide an invoice based on estimated numbers if club membership data is not provided?

No, calculations are based on actual numbers.

Why is it so important to get the information to Yachting New Zealand by the due date each year?

Yachting New Zealand require time for the data to be processed and to follow up on any queries that might arise. We will be in touch if we need help understanding your club's membership data. Clubs may be required to provide their financials to Yachting New Zealand upon request.

Who will see the information?

Your club information will be seen and used by Yachting New Zealand staff only. A disclaimer (see below) can be used to give members peace of mind.

Yachting New Zealand Member Card

Why did Yachting New Zealand introduce a member card and app?

We are continually looking to provide more value to our members’ and the member card and smartphone app help demonstrate this value. The member card will allow clubs to demonstrate their affiliation to the national body (meeting liquor licensing requirements in your clubhouse – or to allow participation in national events) but also Yachting New Zealand are able to extend benefits from our network of sponsors and partners to individual club members. Ultimately individual boaties will see savings, and clubs will be able to reduce their operating expenditure.

In the past, Yachting New Zealand has only been able to communicate with boaties via their clubs and we are looking at improving on this through new and direct lines of communication. The more connected we are to people in our sport, the greater our capacity to generate revenue to put back into our member services department.

Who is eligible for the member card?

Membership cards were previously issued to club members as part of the member card programme, which more than 70 percent of clubs have opted to join. All affiliated club members will qualify for the Yachting New Zealand member card with a dedicated membership number as well as the partner benefits associated with it.

How does the digital card work?

All club members will be sent an email advising them to download and register on the Yachting New Zealand app once your club's affiliation fee has been paid. The digital card and partner discounts will be available for viewing in the member zone once the club member has registered and then logged in. The card and partner benefits will no longer be visible when they expire on August 31 each year but will come online again once affiliation has been renewed.

Why are Yachting New Zealand not printing cards anymore?

We're moving with the times. Not only will this be simpler for everyone - one less card to manage, convenience when redeeming member card offerings and a simpler tool for identification – it will provide a considerable cost saving and be more environmentally friendly.

What if our club members don't have a smartphone? Do they need to have the Yachting New Zealand App to access member benefits?

Clubs can contact Beth on beth@yachtingnz.org.nz with a list of club members who do not have access to a smartphone.

For app users, there is the additional benefit of seeing new member benefits as they become available as well as extra offers.

Do I still need to provide information as part of the member card programme?

Once you start sending all the details through for affiliation, all those members will be issued with a digital member card. We can only issue the card to club members whose email address has been supplied in the affiliation data. We are aware the member cards are from the previous season, but they are issued in good faith to all your existing members.

You will be able to update this list with new members who have joined during the year, as well as members who have not renewed. These changes can be instantaneous as we are working with a digital platform.

If I sent membership details during the year for the member card, do I still need to send member data for affiliation?

Yes. Our levy calculation is based on the type of memberships and we will still need a breakdown of your member details and the membership category, as per the template.

Are the benefits available throughout New Zealand?

We are working to continually add new suppliers and increase the value from existing ones. All of the Yachting New Zealand member benefits are available nationally. Where a supplier may be based in one city only, the offer is available by phone or online.

Will this conflict with our existing club sponsors?

Yachting New Zealand will not ask clubs to specifically promote any of the member benefit suppliers.
